4.2 Compliance with the Corporations Act

- (a) HFY must disclose 'price sensitive' information.
- (b) 'Price sensitive' information is information which is not generally available and which a reasonable person would expect that if the information were disclosed it would have a material effect on the price of HFY's shares. Such information could therefore influence investors in deciding whether or not to buy, hold or sell HFY's shares.
- (c) The requirement to immediately disclose 'price sensitive' information to the ASX does not apply for such period of time while all of the following elements are satisfied:
 - (1) A reasonable person would not expect the information to be disclosed;

 - (D) The information is generated for the internal management purposes of the entity.

(E) The information is a trade secret.

- (c) The procedure for the making of ASX announcements is as follows:
- (d) The Company Secretary is responsible for:
 - (1) reviewing all information received by him/her pursuant to this Policy;
 - (2) making a recommendation to the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer on whether it is 'price sensitive' information that must be disclosed to the ASX and/or falls within the exception referred to in paragraph 4.2(c) above; and

- (f) Once approved, the Company Secretary will then transmit the announcement to the ASX.

5 Other Public Communications and Media Statements

The Directors and all employees must comply with the following guidelines:

- (a) Except as otherwise stated in this Policy, only the Chief Executive Officer or, in his absence, the Chairman will communicate with the media. No one else may make any comment whatsoever on behalf of the Group to the media without the prior approval of the Chief Executive Officer.

information (being information that is in the public domain) is provided when answering questions asked by third parties, including analysts.

- (d) This paragraph (c) applies to announcements of a marketing nature, where such information is not 'price sensitive'. If any senior manager considers it in the interests of the Company that a public announcement (other than as required under ASX Listing Rules or the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)) be made to the media, whether approached to do so or otherwise, that senior manager should first consult the Chief Executive Officer. If the announcement is approved by the Chief Executive Officer, the senior manager may release the public announcement.
